STUDENT CONCERNS/OPPORTUNITIES

International Students: Please remember that U.S. law says children under 12 years of age are not to be left by themselves. Also, American custom says that when children are outside playing, the mother or father should be watching to see that they do not get into mischief, hurt themselves, or make too much noise. Your supervision also protects your children from strangers who may intend to harm them. Even if there is another adult watching other children outside at play, you should still be there watching your children.

Human Concerns Come hear Paul Hiebert, SWM professor, tell us his "Pilgrimage in Social Issues". All are welcome to join us on 2nd floor of the Catalyst building at NOON on Monday, April 16. Feel free to bring your lunch!
